

Bismarck State College

JOB OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT

JOB OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT (Internal/External)

- POSITION: Assistant Professor of Agriculture, Technology and Natural Resources
- SUMMARY OF POSITION: Responsibilities include teaching agriculture and economics courses, student advising, record keeping, committee work, and other duties as assigned by the Department Chair and/or the Dean of Faculty.
- QUALIFICATIONS: Appropriate bachelor's degree, with agreement to complete a master's degree within six years.
- Expertise in agricultural recordkeeping, agricultural finance, enterprise analysis and microeconomics.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are essential.
- Good computer software skills (i.e., Microsoft Word, e-mail, Outlook, electronic calendar, Oracle).
- Ability to articulate and support the community college philosophy with a strong commitment to teaching and learning in a community college setting.
- Ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups.
- PREFERENCES: Appropriate master's degree.
- Documented successful college teaching experience.
- COMPENSATION: Nine month, full-time tenure track position. Salary will be based on experience and credentials. Comprehensive fringe benefit package including TIAA/CREF retirement plan and family health insurance.
- APPLICATION DEADLINE: February 29, 2008, or until filled.
- STARTING DATE: August 20, 2008.
- APPLICATION PROCEDURE: To apply, submit the following materials: BSC faculty application, letter of application, statement of teaching philosophy, resume, three letters of reference, and official transcripts (undergraduate and graduate). For more information or assistance, contact: Human Resources (701) 224-5531.

Equal Opportunity Employer